

The Daily Gazetteer:

FRIDAY, JUNE 6. 1740.

1740

11.15.47.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, May 26.

THEIR Graces the Duke and Duchess of Hamilton are set out hence for Hamilton Palace; as is the Right Hon. the Earl of Hyndford for his Seat in the West.

The 7 Transports, with Col. Douglas's Regiment are still detained in the Frith by the easterly Winds.

Yesterday departed this Life, at her House in Glasgow, in an advanced Age, the Right Hon. the Countess of Bute, Relict of James, first Earl.

She died at his Seat of Kelburn, in the County of Dumfries, aged 53, the Right Hon. John Boyle Earl of Glasgow, and is succeeded by his eldest Son, also COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcastle, May 31. Last Week Margaret Chipmole, a Moor-house near Chirton, was found hanging out-house of her own: She had twice before attempted to drown herself, but was as often frustrated by her Father; however, waiting an Opportunity of Absence, she accomplish'd her diabolical Scene hanging herself.

On Saturday Night last was taken out of this River, floating on the Surface, the Body of Findley Parsons, who was lost about six Weeks ago; his Body was found mangled, and his Skull fractured: When it was found it was between two Ships near the Crane. He was a Labourer at the Glass-works.

On Sunday last 10 Sail of light Colliers, &c. arrived at Shields from London, with a strong Gale of Wind at E.S.E.

On Monday the Regiment of Marines commanded by the Hon. Col. Lowther, march'd from this Town to Shields, and the same Day embark'd on board the 7 Transports in that Harbour for the Isle of Rhé. His Majesty's Ship the Otter, commanded by Capt. Dumareque, is ordered as their Convoy to the said Island.

On Tuesday was committed to Durham Jail George Bourne a Marine in Col. Lowther's Regiment, for breaking open a House near Barnard-castle, and stealing thence several Things of Value: He is charged with murdering an old Woman, at or near the same Place; which he denies, as to the latter, but owns he was in Company when it was committed. He has also confessed to have broke open several Houses lately; and has pressed to make an Acknowledgment to George Bowes, Esq; one of the Justices for that County, and no other.

On Wednesday this Port was open'd for the Importation of Oats.

Newbury, June 4. Last Sunday at 11 in the Forenoon, as a young Girl was going from Biddenden to her Father at Tenderden, she was met by a Villain on the Road, who stripp'd her of all her Clothes, her Stockings, and Shift, which he pull'd over her Head in order to take, but was prevented by the pulling of the Sleeves, Upon which the Rogue swore he would murder her; and notwithstanding she cry'd hard for her Life, he put his Fingers in her Mouth, and grasped her in such a violent Manner across the lower Part of her Face, that he left her for dead, lying her into a Ditch, and cover'd her with Stones. But the Neighbours coming that Way from the Church soon after, and discovering her by her Groans, they took Care of her; and the Neighbourhood being alarmed, pursued the Villain with about sixty Men, who took him, and he was committed to Maidstone Gaol; the Clothes being found on him, he confessed the whole Matter.

HOME PORTS.

June 4. Wind E. N. E. Remain the Chichester and Dragon Men of War, with the Neptune, and the Nottingham, King, for Portsmouth. The London, Finch, for Maryland; the Three Kings, Wright, for Portsmouth.

June 4. Pass'd by the Ann, Dickenson, from St. Christophers; the George, Teague, from Gibraltar; and the George, Behn, from Hamburg.

LONDON.

There is Advice from Oporto, that on the 21st of May N. S. Fifteen large Spanish Men of War, full of Men, sail'd out of Ferrol to attack Admiral Balchen; who has a much larger Force than they imagine, his Squadron, we hear, consisting of 12 stout Ships.

Thursday last dy'd at Salisbury, in the 67th Year of his Age, Mr. John Lawrence, an eminent Talow-Chandler of that City, who has left no Issue, and is said to have dy'd very rich.

Yesterday Morning dy'd, after a tedious Indisposition, the Right Hon. Thomas Onslow, Lord Onslow, and Baronet, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey, one of the Tellers of his Majesty's Exchequer, and High Steward of the Borough of Guilford. He was Uncle to the Right Hon. Arthur Onslow, Esq; Speaker of the Hon. House of Commons.

His Lordship married Elizabeth sole Daughter and Heiress to Mr. Knight, an eminent Merchant: By her (who died in April 1731) he has left only one Son, named Richard, born 1713, now Member of Parliament for Guilford in Surrey, who succeeds his Lordship in Honour and Estate.

He was descended from an ancient Family which took their Surname from the Town of Onslow in the County of Salop, and were Lords of it before the Reign of King Henry III.

One of the Ancestors of this noble Family, whose Name was Richard, was a great Forwarder of the Restoration of King Charles II. and was a Gentleman esteem'd among the politest Men of the Age, for the great Earl of Shaftsbury set a Value on his Friendship, and others of the best Quality were his Companions.

Yesterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleas'd to appoint Mr. Huxley, Son to George Huxley, Esq; Member of Parliament for Newport in Hants and Commissary General, to be Lieutenant of the Cambridge; and he was sworn in and received his Commission accordingly.

This Day the Lords and others Commissioners for Chelsea College meet at the Hospital Room in Killigrew-court, Middle Scotland-yard, to examine such invalid Soldiers as are worn out in the Service of the Crown, in order to admit them into the Pension of the said College.

Yesterday several of the Lords of the Regency, and divers other Persons of Distinction were at St. James's and took Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess of Hesse, who was to embark this Morning at 5 o'Clock on board the Mary Yacht at Greenwich, whither a Detachment of the Horse and Grenadier-guards were ordered to be in Readiness to escort her Highness.

Last Night died at his Lodgings at Kensington-Gore, his Grace the Duke of Kent, Knight of the most noble Order of the Garter, &c.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S
BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood;
 also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or Menfes; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptic from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr.
 Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Our's exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.
